FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONNER ELECTED TO AASPA EXECUTIVE BOARD

RENO, NV – Gwendolyn Conner, director of human resources for the Lancaster County School District in Lancaster, SC, has been elected region 6 representative on the executive board of the American Association of School Personnel Administrators (AASPA). Conner was elected at the annual Region 6 Meeting on Oct. 12, 2011, at AASPA's 73rd Annual Conference in Reno, NV.

Conner will serve as region representative for three years. Her duties include representing region 6 (Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida) and serving as board liaison to the Nominating Committee, as well as attending three board meetings per year. AASPA's executive board is made up of four officers and six region representatives from across the United States.

Gwendolyn Conner is a member in good standing with the National and State SHRM, National Association of Secondary School Principals, AASPA, SCASA, and SC Women at Work Association. She also presently holds three earned degrees (M.S., B.S., and A.S.) from accredited colleges and universities. Conner is a graduate of Aiken County Leadership, York County Leadership, and Lancaster County Leadership Programs and has been serving in progressive positions of leadership with local and state organizations for the past twelve years. She is the immediate past chair of Board of Directors for the Committee on Human Relations for the City of Rock Hill, SC and a former adjunct professor of business law at York Technical College.

The American Association of School Personnel Administrators is an international organization that provides leadership in promoting effective human resource practices within education. Headquartered in Overland Park, Kan., AASPA holds an annual conference in October and various regional professional development opportunities throughout the year besides providing other valuable benefits to its 2000+ members. More information about AASPA can be found at www.aaspa.org.
